

NOMINATION OF NEW TRAINING COMPANY OR CONSULTANT FORM

Revised January 13, 2012

Chrysler Minority Dealers Association (CMDA) Consulting & Training Program

Objective

The CMDA charter includes providing quality training, development and support for its membership. Utilizing industry leading consulting companies has been re-instated to support the membership in need of assistance.

All CMDA Dealerships are eligible to participate in the program which reimburses members 2/3 of eligible expenses (1/3 CMDA and 1/3 Chrysler Group LLC). Eligible expenses are expenses that are associated with consulting and /or training. Software, hardware, marketing, and advertising expenses are not reimbursable under this program.

CMDA Consultant Approval Process

The following is a brief overview of the consultant training approval process:

- The consulting company submits the following to CMDA Headquarters:
 - The CMDA Approved Consultant Application Request form (refer to page 2)
 - A proposal which must include an itemized list of the services and prices the company would like to offer to CMDA members
- The Consulting & Training Committee will review the proposal, check references and interview the consultant to ascertain if the company is a benefit to CMDA members.
- The Consulting & Training Committee will notify the consultant company via telephone and letter of their decision.

